Introduction – Least Reached People Groups of India Handbook

Dr. Alex Abraham (Operation Agape)

It has been 2000 years since Jesus gave us the great commission, "Go and make Disciples of all Nations" (Mathew 28:19) and yet the the task the Lord has assigned to his disciples is still unfinished. The term 'nations' in the Bible refers to ethnic groups or people groups rather than a geo-political nation. It was Ralph Winter from U.S. Center for World Missions who introduced the concept of 'people groups' to modern missions at the 1974 Lausanne Congress of World Evangelization. Extensive research has been done since then to define the list of people groups in the world, and who among them are still not reached by the Gospel. In 1989, the concept of the 10/40 Window emerged as a geographical region between 10 degrees and 40 degrees north of equator. The term unreached people group (UPG) generally refers to a people group that has less than 2% Evangelical Christians. Of the nearly 12,000 people groups in the world, 1739 were found to be unreached people groups, of which 95% of them were located in the 10/40 Window. In the last 20 years, mission leaders all over the world have been passionate to see that every one of the world's people groups is reached by the gospel effectively.

Praise the Lord that since then, many of the hitherto unreached people groups have been targeted and engaged in the last two decades. Various groups are still trying to define more precisely the remaining people groups that need to be focused on a priority basis.This resulted in multiple listings of people groups, which may be confusing to many people. However, much of the confusion is because of the way the people groups are defined based on varying criterias, such as languages, religion, population size and geographical locations.

In 2006, the International Mission Board and the Finishing the Task movement came out with a list of 639 major Unreached and Unengaged People Groups (UUPGs) in the world with a population of 100,000 or more. This is known as the FTT List of UUPGs. Of this list, 310 people groups are found in the nation of India, which hold 71% of the world's major unreached and unengaged people group population. The term unreached and unengaged people group (UUPG) refers to those groups with no known Christian workers, with no or very few believers, and no intentional evangelism, discipleship or church planting strategy in place.

This list of 310 UUPGs has been the main focus of the Finishing the Task movement in India over the last seven years. Praise the Lord today that many of them have been adopted and engaged to varying extents by many agencies, churches and missions.
There are basically three lists of unreached people groups in the world today.

1. Joshua Project's listing of unreached people groups (UPGs). – www.joshuaproject.net
2. Finishing the Task's UUPGs list. - www.finishingthetask.com
3. The International Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention's unreached and unengaged people group (UUPGs) list. - www.peoplegroups.org

There are a lot of overlaps in the above 3 lists, and even the numbers and the population also vary. However, for practical reasons and uniformity in approaching the unreached people groups in an Indian context, the research team of the National Resource Center has attempted to consolidate these lists. This consolidated list will be given the name 'Least Reached/Engaged People Groups of India.' For the purpose of this combined list being presented in this book, we have used the following criteria:

1. The Finishing the Task original list of 310 major Unreached and Unengaged People groups of India with more than 100,000 in population. Further details can be obtained from the Serve-a-People Handbook and Operation India Handbook published by the National Resource Center. FTT has since then further redefined the list and today India holds 261 of the world's 1065 UUPGs with populations over 25,000. This list can be viewed at www.finishingthetask.com.

2. The IMB list of 71 unreached and unengaged people groups in India with more than 50,000 in population. They have listed 261 UUPGs in India, of which only 71 have more than 50,000 in population. This list can be viewed at www.peoplegroups.org.
3. The Joshua Project list of 286 major unreached people group in India with more than 500,000 in population. There are a total of 2610 people groups in India listed by Joshua Project as unreached people groups. 652 of these have more than 100,000 in population and 879 have more than 50,000 in population. This list can be viewed at www.joshuaproject.com

If the three lists are combined, there are 857 people groups, but after deleting the overlapping names, NRC has made a list containing 627 people groups which are listed as 'Least Reached/Engaged People Groups of India.' This list forms the basis of the description in this book. We have made an attempt to classify them by state, language and religion. We have also included a list of priority least reached people groups which you may look for in every district in India. Although the detailed description of each of these least reached people groups is beyond the scope of this book, we will be happy to provide more information to those who are serious about adopting and engaging any one of them.

We have also included a general overview/profile of the nation of India with a list of all the states, districts and population for your further planning. We have also included the list of districts that are less than 0.1% Christian based on the 2001 census database, and the list of 110 unreached language groups of India with no scriptures.
If you would like to adopt and engage any one of these people groups, or if you can provide more information on the current status of ministry among these people groups, kindly fill the People Group Adoption/Reporting Form (Form A) and send it to us.

What should you do once you adopt a people group?

1. Start praying for your selected, specific unreached people group.
2. Gather maximum information about your selected people groups. Websites and other publications, such as Operation India, can be a great help.
3. Choose the area (district or block) that you want to focus on.
4. Train a group of two or more people as pioneer church planters to work among them.
5. Consider the most appropriate entry strategies for your chosen people group.
6. Implement the most appropriate evangelism strategies for your chosen people group.
7. Develop a clear discipleship plan for the new believers.
8. As much as possible, use indigenous workers to plant churches in the specific people group.
9. Train indigenous leaders from within the people group for multiplication.
10. Frequently evaluate your strategy and be willing to change when needed.

What do we mean by adoption and engagement of a people group?

This means a group, church or mission owns the responsibility for reaching a specific least reached people group in a specific geographical location, such as a state, district or block. This includes sending a team of pioneer church planters to do intentional evangelism, discipleship and church formation with a specific target on the chosen unreached people group. They will then train indigenous leaders from among them to see a reproducible church planting movement. We have given an example of the profile of the Parja people group in Orissa which has been adopted and engaged since 2006, and now several churches have been started.
Will you or your church come forward to adopt and engage one or more of these groups for intentional evangelism and church planting? You can make a difference in the lives of a unique people group who has never heard the gospel. Let us join hands together to finish the task. We are here to serve you until the task is completed.

Dr. Alex Abraham - Operation Agape.

Understanding the People Groups of India

Tony Samuel (People India)

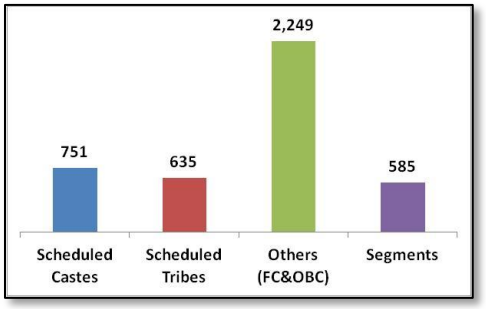

A people group is the largest community among which the gospel can flow without encountering significant barriers of understanding and acceptance. To effectively engage one of the least reached people groups of India, we must first obtain an accurate understanding of the terminologies. Many people have asked us about the People Group list and asked why ours is different. To find the answer, we need to define the criteria:

1. According to Dr. K. S Singh of the Anthropological Society of India, there are 4,635 Ethno-cultural people groups in India. This list classifies people groups based on their caste, culture, religion, geographic location and ethnicity.
2. There are an additional 585 segments listed by Anthropological Society of India. If we include them as separate groups, then we have 5,147 People Groups.
3. There are some People Groups found in more than one state. If we consider them as a separate people group, then we have 4,635 groups. For example, Gonds are in eight states and therefore they are eight people groups if we consider them as different People Groups, since they may adopt their state language, culture, festivals, etc.
4. Ethno-Lingiustic criteria classifies people groups based on their languages spoken. Most of the international listings are based on Ethno-Linguistic criteria. The number becomes lower in India by using this approach.
5. If we take each People Group as one group for the whole country, then we have 2,257 groups. For example, Gond in India would be one single group found throughout eight states:

1. Andhra Pradesh 245,304	4. Madhya Pradesh 8,081,383	7. Uttar Pradesh 485,874
2. Assam 176,825	5. Maharashtra 1,776,658	8. West Bengal 6,390
3. Bihar 133,712	6. Orissa 926,662	Total 11,832,808

People Group in India at a glance: Source: ASI, Kolkatta 1999

1. Scheduled Castes	751
2. Scheduled Tribes	635
3. Others (FC & OBC)	2,249
4. Segments	585

Classification of Communities

1. Forward Communities (upper castes or non-reserved castes) are groups of endogamous castes that are classified neither as backward castes nor scheduled castes and tribes in lists published by the Government of India or by various state governments. This will constitute approximately 15% of the Indian population.
2. Backward Communities are generally a group of people who live off income derived from self employment or caste-dependent skills assignments. They typically constitute the Scheduled Castes (Dalits), Scheduled tribes, and the Other Backward Classes (OBC's). They live mainly in rural India and perform hard physical labor such as agriculture and janitorial work. Backward Castes constitute around 60-65% of the Indian population.
    a. The Other Backward Classes (OBCs) are a group of castes officially recognized as having been traditionally subject to exclusion. The Constitution of India recognizes the need to extend positive discrimination to this section. This constitutes about 45% of the Indian population.
    b. Scheduled Castes (Dalits) are communities that are accorded special status by the Constitution of India. These communities were considered 'outcastes' and were excluded from the Chaturvarna system that was the descriptive social superstructure of Hindu society in the Indian subcontinent for thousands of years. This constitutes about 15% of the Indian population.
    c. Scheduled Tribes are tribal populations which constitute about 8% of the Indian population.

Terms and Definitions

People Group

A people group is a significantly large community of individuals who perceive themselves to have a common affinity with one another. They often have their own culture, dressing, language, festivals, etc. In most cases, marriage is restricted to members of one's own People Group.

Language Group

Language groups are groupings of individuals divided entirely according to languages spoken. A people group may be divided into a number of sub-groups based on the languages that they speak.

Caste

The caste system is the rigid South Asian structure of hereditary social classes. Caste and social status are determined at birth and cannot be changed. Marriage is restricted to members of one's own caste. The caste system originally had four levels: Brahman - seers (priests, teachers), Kshatriya - administrators (military leaders), Vaisya - producers (skilled craftspersons, businessmen), and Shoodra - servants (unskilled laborers). The first three come under the forward castes, and the last one comes under the OBCs. Each caste is split into countless sub-castes. The scheduled castes (Dalits) and scheduled tribes are considered to be outside the caste system of the Hindu society.

Ethno-Linguistic People

Ethno-Linguistic People is a grouping of individuals based primarily on language spoken, but with the possibility of sub-divisions based upon dialect or cultural distinctive.

Primary Religion

Primary Religion is defined by the religion with the greatest number of adherents in this people group. Usually more than half the people group follow this religion, but not always.

Unreached People Group

Unreached people groups are those that are less than 2% evangelical Christians.

Unengaged People Group

An unengaged people group is one which has no active church planting underway. A people group is engaged when a church planting strategy, consistent with evangelical faith and practice, is under implementation.

In this respect, a people group is not engaged when it has been merely adopted, is the object of focused prayer, or is part of an advocacy strategy. At least four essential elements constitute effective engagement:

1. Apostolic effort in residence;
2. Commitment to work in the local language and culture;
3. Commitment to long-term ministry;
4. Sowing in a manner consistent with the goal of seeing a Church Planting Movement (CPM) emerge.

Least Reached or Least Engaged People Group

We use the terms "least reached" or “least engaged” to mean a people group with very little evangelism and church planting initiatives taking place proportionate to their population size. It is possible that there may be a few believers among them or some initial attempts have been made to reach them in some geographical locations, but it is far from adequate. They do not have any significant community of indigenous believing Christians in adequate numbers and resources to evangelize their own people group.
*Refer to the Introduction for the

People Groups in Bihar by Population size

For the purpose of this listing, we have used the term 'Least Reached/Engaged People Groups.'

John 20:21 NIV

When Jesus told His disciples to preach the Gospel to all nations, the word He used for "nations" was the Greek word "ethnos." A nation is made up of many groups of "ethnos" or "people groups."

People Group Profiles

Kalwar People

They are called Kalar, Kallar, Sehore and Kalal, Kalwar are also known as Kalal or Ka]ol. The community has subgroups of Karwar, Kanujia, Magahiya and Bhoivuria. In West Bengal, the Kalwar are also known as Kalal and Konwar. They have a regional caste council known as Behaut Sangh. They have been described as Kalwan. The Kalwar use the surnames such as Batham, Gupta, Jaiswar, Jaiswal and Shaw which are sometimes confused as subgroups. Many families have migrated to urban centres in the recent past. The attitude of the community towards various developmental programmes is favourable and their literacy level is moderate. Most of the elderly members of the community have not received any formal education, but the younger generation is pursuing formal education.

Identity

Alternate name : Also called Kalar, Kallar, Sehore and Kalal, and In Uttar Pradesh, the Kalwar use the surnames of Batham, Gupta, Jaiswar, Jaiswal and Shaw.
Population : 62,71,312
Location : They live in Uttar Pradesh, Bihar, Madhya Pradesh , Bihar and West Bengal.Maharashtra and Orissa.
Language : They speak Hindi and use the Devanagari script. In Bihar they speak the local dialect of Magahi.
Religion : They are Hindu and have the Brahman priests as their sacred specialists.

Socio-Economic Status

Occupation : The Kalwar are engaged in settled cultivation, business, trade., some as distillers and traders of country liquor.
Food : They are non-vegetarian in their food habits.
Marriage : Consanguineous marriages are prohibited but through negotiation. Their rule of residence is patrilocal. The symbols of married women are vermilion, toe-rings, a mark on the forehead (bindi) and black bangles.
Relationship : At present the Brahman accepts pucca food from them, though this was avoided in the past. There are stray cases of intercommunity marriages among them.

Languages in Bihar

According to Census 2001 there are 22 languages spoken in the state Hindi and Urdu are the official languages of the state (recently Maithili is also included as one of the official languages of the state, although the usage of the language for official purposes is negligible), while the majority of the people speak one of the Bihari languages – Maithili, Angika, Magadhi or Bhojpuri . Presently Bihari languages are considered one of the five subgroups of Hindi; however, Maithili was declared a separate language. In spite of the large number of speakers of Bihari languages, they have not been constitutionally recognised in India. Hindi is the language used for educational and official matters in Bihar. These languages were legally absorbed under the subordinate label of 'HINDI' in the 1961 Census. Such state and national politics have created conditions for language endangerment. Urdu is second government language in Bihar which is the mother tongue of Muslims who form about 17% of state's population. Near 25% people in Bihar read and write Maithili is an Indo-Aryan language spoken in eastern Nepal and North Bihar of India. It is presently written with the Devanagari script despite having its own Mithilakshar script. In 2003, Maithili was included in the Eighth Schedule of the Indian Constitution, which allows the language to be used in education, government, and other official contexts. It is the second most spoken language of Nepal (at around 12%).

In Bihar, where the major dialect spoken apart from Hindi, is Bhojpuri and forms of Maagdhi. Maithili in its modified forms is the second major language spoken in urban Jharkhand after Hindi. Maithili also is spoken in Bihar up to the Purnia, Munger and Bhagalpur districts parts of southeast Nepal. The cultural and linguistic centers are the towns of Madhubani and Darbhanga. Native speakers also reside in Delhi, Calcutta and Mumbai. Maithili is also spoken in Sitamarhi, Saharsa, Madhepura and Supaul.

Writing system

Maithili was traditionally written in the Maithili script (also known by the names Tirhuta, i.e., Mithilakshar) and Kaithi script. Nowadays, Devanagari script is most commonly used. An effort is underway to preserve the Maithili script and to develop it for use in digital media by encoding the script in the Unicode standard.
